

WEEKEND WRAP

SPRUCE GROVE, ALBERTA

February 14, 2022

It was an action-packed weekend in the Hockey Super League's U15 division this past weekend, with games taking place in Morinville, Alberta and Delta, British Columbia. Here's a rundown of the action...

STARS HOCKEY ACADEMY

The Stars Hockey Academy had a busy weekend in British Columbia, beginning with a 3-0 shutout victory over the Vancouver Sharks. Kaden Wilkins (1-1-2) and Amjot Dhillon (0-2-2) each had two points, while Cayden Goossen and Cale Lavallee also scored for the Stars. Brandon Williams was perfect in net, making 27 saves.

Game two didn't go as planned, as the Stars ran into a tough Sharpshooter Hockey Academy squad and dropped a 6-2 decision. Goossen and Dhillon scored for the Stars, while Carsen Washburn was busy in goal, making 36 saves in a losing cause.

The Stars got back on the winning track, with Williams once again standing tall in a 3-0 shutout win over the Fraser Valley Sturgeon. Wilkins had a three-point game, while Goossen (1-1-2) and Dhillon (1-1-2) each had a goal and an assist.

Their fourth and final game of the weekend was a rematch with the Sturgeon, this time much tighter and a narrow 7-6 victory. Ethan Ebuenga's hat-trick (3-1-4) led the way for the Stars, with Goossen (1-2-3) having a three-point game. Washburn was able to close the door and secure the win for the Stars, making 33 saves.

SAINTS PRO HOCKEY ACADEMY (BLUE)

The Saints Pro Hockey Academy (Blue) opened their weekend with a hard-fought battle with their SPHA counterpart, SPHA (Grey), coming out with a thrilling 5-4 overtime victory. Cole Kronewitt (1-1-2), Samuel Charko (1-1-2) and Bryce Kohler (0-2-2) led the charge for the Saints, with Koyhn Pipke notching the overtime winner. Renna Trembecky stood tall in net, making 28 saves for the win.

An offensive outburst propelled the Saints to a convincing 9-1 win over the Capital City Knights in their second and final game of the weekend. Antonio Martorana had a hat-trick (3-1-4), while Sam Cadieux (2-1-3) and Charko (0-3-3) each had three-point games.

SAINTS PRO HOCKEY ACADEMY (GREY)

The Saints Pro Hockey Academy (Grey) began their weekend with an intense rivalry with SPHA (Blue). The Saints had four different goal scorers however it wasn't enough as Blue came away with a 5-4 overtime victory. Jeremy Letourneau, Logan Findlay, Trystyn Sidor and Taylor Reimer each scored for Grey. Goaltender Adam Kisilevich made 22 saves in a losing effort.

The offence continued for the Saints in game two, as they defeated the Capital City Knights 6-2. Ethan Andrews (1-1-2) and Findlay (0-2-2) each had two points, while Joseph Quintilio made 16 saves for the win between the pipes.

The Saints wrapped up their weekend with a rematch against the Capital City Knights and once again came away with a convincing 5-2 win. Ethan Poeckens (2-1-3) led the charge for the Saints, while Max West and Sidor both had a goal and an assist. Kisilevich was back tending the twine and made 23 saves for the win.

SHARPSHOOTER HOCKEY ACADEMY

The Sharpshooter Hockey Academy played one game this weekend, using a four-goal performance from Taylor Mackie to down the Stars Hockey Academy 6-2. Easton Melanson (1-2-3) and Owen Baldwin (1-1-2) also scored for Sharpshooter. Zachary David was sharp in net for Sharpshooter, making 37 saves for the win.

FRASER VALLEY STURGEON

The Fraser Valley Sturgeon opened their weekend with a 3-0 loss to the Stars Hockey Academy. Lucas Szulc was spectacular in goal, keeping the Sturgeon in it with 45 saves.

The Sturgeon's offence came alive in their second game, scoring six times, however they weren't able to fend off the Stars in a rematch, losing by a final score of 7-6. Tyler Magdalinski (2-1-3), Bryson Patkau (1-1-2), Matteo Appezzato (1-1-2), Matthew Calder and Justice Comeau scored for the Sturgeon.

CAPITAL CITY KNIGHTS

It was a tough weekend for the Capital City Knights, as they faced off with both rival Saints Pro Hockey Academy teams. In their first game, the Knights had goals from Cale Chimera and Eddie Cochrane, however it wasn't enough as they fell 6-2 to SPHA (Grey). Leo den Besten was tested often, making 34 saves.

Their next game saw them face off with SPHA (Blue) where they found themselves down early and often, eventually losing by a final score of 9-1. Lucas Brassard had the lone goal for the Knights while Tye Gehlert played most of the game in net, making 38 saves in a losing effort.

The Knights concluded their weekend with a rematch with SPHA (Grey) and despite a solid effort, fell to the Saints 5-2. Marcus Stoby and Drew Christian tallied for the Knights, while Gehlert was busy all game long in net, facing 49 Saints shots.

VANCOUVER SHARKS

The Vancouver Sharks played one game this past weekend, dropping a 3-0 decision to the Stars Hockey Academy. Tyson Latter was solid in goal for the Sharks, making 46 saves in a losing cause.

