

WEEKEND WRAP

SPRUCE GROVE, ALBERTA

February 7, 2022

The Hockey Super League's U17 Prep Division was back in action this past weekend with games played in Alberta (Edmonton and Viking) as well as British Columbia (Coquitlam). Here's a rundown of the action...

3-0-0

EAGLES HOCKEY ACADEMY

It was a big weekend for the Eagles Hockey Academy, beginning with a matchup with the Saints Pro Hockey Academy. Led by a 52-save performance by goaltender Jedd Stybel and two goals from Ryker MacPherson, the Eagles defeated the Saints 3-1. Berkley Gross and Leyland Downham also scored for the Eagles

In their second game, the Eagles offence came to life, notching a convincing 5-2 win over the Red Wings Hockey Academy. Scoring for the Eagles were Downham with a pair, Gross (1-1-2), MacPherson and Caden Cygan. Goaltender Bradyn Hewko was solid making 24 saves, while Shawn Bailey and Austin Boser each contributed with two assists

A rematch with the Red Wings wrapped up the weekend for the Eagles and despite a tougher contest, the Eagles came out on top by a final score of 5-4. Ryder Pirnak scored twice, while Talin McLeod had three assists for the Eagles. Chance Basaraba (2-0-2) and Cygan (0-2-2) both had multiple point games with Stybel stopping 43 shots for the win.

2-1-0

SAINTS PRO HOCKEY ACADEMY

The Saints Pro Hockey Academy opened their weekend with a hard-fought battle with the Eagles Hockey Academy, coming up short in a 3-1 loss. The Saints offence sputtered with Hunter Harringa scoring the lone goal. Grant Rain was solid in net making 28 saves in a losing effort.

The Saints found the spark they needed in their second game, scoring early and often enroute to an 8-1 victory over the Red Wings Hockey Academy. Simon Lovsin had four points (1-3-4) while both Grayson Niehaus and Josh Polak scored twice for the Saints. Caleb Kucy and Harringa both added a goal and an assist each.

The Saints wrapped up their weekend with a rematch with a much more determined Red Wings team, coming out on top 4-3. Both Lovsin and Niehaus had a goal and an assist for the Saints, while goaltender Ty Radke made 17 saves for the win.

RED WINGS HOCKEY ACADEMY

0-4-0

It was a tough weekend for the host Red Wings, as they faced some stiff competition starting with the Eagles Hockey Academy. Goals from Jordan Gagnon and Carter Hogman weren't enough as the Red Wings dropped a 5-2 decision. Sebastien Culham was busy in net, making 32 saves.

Game two saw the Red Wings bring a much better effort in a rematch with the Eagles. Goaltender Ty Djos was great in between the pipes, keeping the Red Wings in it with 39 saves, however the Eagles would net the winner and prevailed 5-4. Almas Senic (2-1-3), Thayer Bunbury (0-3-3) and Hogman (1-2-3) led the offence for the Red Wings.

Sunday had the Red Wings facing off with a pair of games against the Saints Pro Hockey Academy. Game one didn't go so well for the Red Wings, as they hung goaltender Culham (46 saves) out to dry in an 8-1 loss. Tucker Joy had the lone tally for the Red Wings.

The rematch once again saw the Red Wings rebound with a stronger performance, losing 4-3 with a gritty effort. Alexander Malaniuk, Gagnon and Hogman scored for the Red Wings, while Djos made 41 saves in a losing cause.

SHARPSHOOTER HOCKEY ACADEMY

1-0-0

The Sharpshooter Hockey Academy played one game this weekend, downing the Vancouver Sharks 4-0. Mason Russell (1-1-2), Kyle McLaren, Ishaan Sohi and Carson Weel scored for Sharpshooter.

VANCOUVER SHARKS

The Vancouver Sharks played one game this past weekend, dropping a 4-0 decision to the Sharpshooter Hockey Academy.

0-1-0

